MEMORANDUM FOR INCOMING SOLDIERS & FAMILIES

SUBJECT: Bravo Company, 369th Adjutant General (AG) Battalion Welcome Letter

1. Congratulations on your assignment to Fort Jackson, and welcome to Bravo Company, 369th Adjutant General Battalion. As your company commander it is an honor to have you assigned to my unit and I look forward to you joining the team. I also want to ensure that every effort is made to make your transition here at Fort Jackson a successful one.
2. Bravo Company's mission is to train Soldiers for the Army by conducting Advanced Individual Training for MOS 42A (Human Resource Specialist) and 36B (Financial Management Technicians) in order to provide Active, Reserve and National Guard organizations with Soldiers that will shape the future of our Army as it relates to Combat Services Support. In addition, we train and equip all of our Service Members with the skills and knowledge to support the force by educating them in the areas of Postal Operations, Executive Administration, Chaplain Assistance training, and Advanced Individual Training Reclassification to PMOS 36B, 42A and 56M for service members from the United States Army, United States Air Force, United States Marine Corps and United States Navy.
3. Fort Jackson is a challenging and rewarding place to serve and being assigned to the 369th AG Battalion makes it even better. Columbia is the capital and largest city in the state of South Carolina; it is a warm community rich in history with a unique culture offering endless recreational opportunities for Soldiers and their Families. I know you will enjoy your tour here.
4. You will have an assigned sponsor that will contact you to assist you and your Family with your transition and with any specific requirements that you may have. I also suggest you visit <http://www.ssi.army.mil/SponsorFRG/index.html> to obtain additional information. I look forward to your arrival and integration into the unit. I am confident that you will find your tour professionally challenging and personally rewarding.
5. We can be contacted at 803-751-5383/1724 or the 369th AG BN S-1 at 803-751-3774. Please let our Training NCO, SGT Green, know if you have not been contacted by your sponsor at lia.c.green.mil@mail.mil. Once again, welcome to Bravo Company. If there is anything I or the staff can assist you with, please let us know. "Army Pride!"
